

Red Indian Adventure

Are you wily enough to be a brave of the Bear Dog tribe? The White Men have decimated your buffalo herds, but you still have to survive. Make a Red Indian camp; pitch your tepee; ambush a wagon train; make a tomahawk; use a bow and arrow; cook Red Indian-style.

21st, 24th, 27th and 28th July

10am to 3pm

£35 per child (lunch included) Ideal for children in Yrs 1-4

The 'Bear Dog Woods' are a beautiful mixture of towering mature beech, light and airy larch and dense holly thickets. A series of hidden glades are connected by secret paths and 'tunnels', creating a magical feeling of 'rooms', each with a different character. It's a wood which has been specifically managed to create a venue for exciting childhood adventures.

"Thank you! It is a huge honour to be a little part of your grand events and to see the enormous pleasure and experience of so many children"

"A HUGE thank you for making the day so amazing. He had a complete ball and came home beaming from ear to ear. His first question was "when can I go again Mummy?" so please let me know when the next courses are; he'll be there! He loved every moment. What a great concept and brilliantly executed - well done!"
