

A Wizard Bushcraft Adventure

All sorts of aspects of bushcraft appear to be highly improbable, if not magical: Making fire by 'rubbing sticks together', or by using a shaving mirror or chemicals; baking in a cardboard box; boiling water in a paper bag; making a compass; working out exactly what an owl ate for tea. Then of course there are potions to mix.

28th May 10am to 3pm

£30 per child (lunch included) Suitable for children in Yrs 1-4

Great Chalk Wood is a remarkable venue for a childhood adventure, one which will be remembered for years to come—100 acres of eerie towering spruce deaden both sound and wind; a bright valley of silver birch and beech fires the imagination with thoughts of magic; thickets of hazel support an abundance of wildlife

"Thank you! It is a huge honour to be a little part of your grand events and to see the enormous pleasure and experience of so many children"

"A HUGE thank you for making the day so amazing. He had a complete ball and came home beaming from ear to ear. His first question was "when can I go again Mummy?" so please let me know when the next courses are; he'll be there! He loved every moment. What a great concept and brilliantly executed - well done!"
