

Red Indian Adventure

Are you wily enough to be a brave of the Bear Dog tribe? The White Men have decimated your buffalo herds, but you still have to survive. Make a Red Indian camp; pitch your tepee; ambush a wagon train; make a tomahawk; use a bow and arrow; cook Red Indian-style.

3rd, 4th and 9th April 10am to 3pm

£30 per child (lunch included) Suitable for children in Yrs 1-3

Great Chalk Wood is a remarkable venue for a childhood adventure, one which will be remembered for years to come—100 acres of eerie towering spruce deaden both sound and wind; a bright valley of silver birch and beech fires the imagination with thoughts of magic; thickets of hazel support an abundance of wildlife

"Thank you! It is a huge honour to be a little part of your grand events and to see the enormous pleasure and experience of so many children"

"A HUGE thank you for making the day so amazing. He had a complete ball and came home beaming from ear to ear. His first question was "when can I go again Mummy?" so please let me know when the next courses are; he'll be there! He loved every moment. What a great concept and brilliantly executed - well done!"
